DEDICATION

Mr. Ruby Wray

This year, the yearbook staff is proud to dedicate the 1986-1987 Beaver Tales to Mr. Ruby Wray. Mr. Wray has served as head of the Business Administration Department for nine years and recently as advisor to the yearbook. Mr. Wray has gained the respect and admiration of his students through his constant demonstration of professionalism and hard work. Mr. Wray sets high standards and inspires his students to meet these standards. His dedication to his students is evident by the hours he keeps to make himself available and the thoroughness of the attention he gives in helping his students register. Mr. Wray has touched us in many ways and will not be forgotten.

"Mr. Wray is what dedication is all about; he puts forth the time and effort to help students succeed in life. There is never a moment when he is not there for you. Through his leadership, he enables students to believe in themselves and become successful in life. I feel very fortunate to of had him a part of my four years at Blackburn."

Scott Brendle, Class of '87

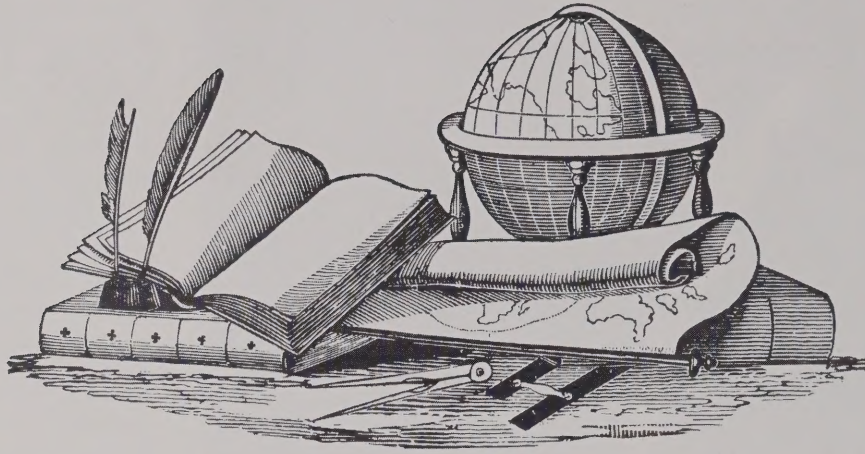

"If I were asked to name one teacher that has had the most influence on me, I would answer Mr. Wray. As a teacher and advisor, he has helped me learn and has always been concerned with my progress. But above all, he has given me the encouragement to grow; the ability to believe in myself. He has rooted in me my desire to succeed - not only in business, but in all areas of life. I will always be grateful to him for this. Thank you Mr. Wray! I'll miss you!"

Susan Kramer, Class of '87

ACTIVITIES & ORGANIZATIONS

B.O.S.A.

B.O.S.A., the Board of Student Activities, is responsible for many of the social activities held on campus. Highlights this year include, "We Can Make You Laugh," a ventriloquist, a hypnotist, and many more. BOSA also organizes many of the weekend dances including homecoming, Valentines dance, and the pajama party. The Board has sponsored several events with Work Committee including The Battle of the Departments. This year's president is Lisa LeJack and the faculty advisor is Hal Haynes. BOSA membership is open to any student who is anxious to get involved and have fun!

The yearbook staff is responsible for coordinating the Beavertales. Although it got off to a rough start, many people pitched in to make it a big success. This year's book tried to capture some of people's most memorable moments as the yearbook is what people refer to 20 years from now to see what Blackburn was like. This year's editors were Lisa Scheffel and Mary Koehne. Mr. Wray was the faculty advisor. Anyone who wants to can help with the preparation of the yearbook.

YEARBOOK

This year's Alpha Chi members were inducted into the Blackburn chapter during a beautiful candlelight ceremony this spring. Dr. Kirsch gave an inspiring lecture on the benefits of studying abroad. Following the induction there was a reception at Dr. and Mrs. Denman's home. Students are selected for Alpha Chi due to demonstrated excellence in academics.

WHO'S WHO

Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities is an honor that several Blackburn students earned this year. Each year the faculty nominates students for this distinction based upon leadership, scholarship, and participation in college activities. The student's names are then published in a national book.

STUDENT SENATE

Student Senate is a very important part of the social life at Blackburn even though they are not often seen. Their main responsibilities include allocating funds to all social groups and organizations on campus, discussing and recommending policy changes concerning social regulations, and serving on various boards on campus representing the views of the students. This year's president was Rick Schott and the faculty advisor was Dr. Sam Meredith. There are five at-large reps elected each spring plus a representative from each dorm and the commuters, usually elected in the fall.

Class Officers are those students elected by their peers to represent their class. Not only is there a president, vice-president, and secretary/treasurer but many classes have reps from each dorm on campus. Each class council works to raise money for their classes but also to perform charitable deeds for the Blackburn and Carlinville communities. This year the Junior class collected canned foods to distribute to the needy over the holiday season. The Class of 1990 organized one of the most successful Talent Shows ever. The Senior Class Officers are making plans on what to do with the money that they have raised over the years. Elections are usually held in the fall and are organized through the Student Activities Office.

"I really liked being a class representative because it gave me an opportunity to get involved with kids in my class and have fun doing things." Tom Walsh, Freshmen Class Representative.

CHOIR

The Blackburn Choir Singers, lead by Dr. Hatlestad, have been providing the Blackburn campus with many outstanding musical performances. Not only do they have a Christmas concert in the Fall but other concerts throughout the year. The highlight of the year is the Spring Break concert tour where they travel and perform. This year the group went to the Chicago area and to parts of Indiana. Choir is a class and you do receive academic credit for it. To join you must audition. When asked why she enjoyed being in choir, Senior Janinna Hendricks answered, "I love to sing and Doc's enthusiasm is fantastic and it catches on."

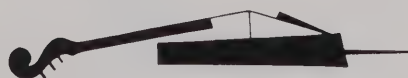

Top L. to R.: A. Popowski, P. Tee, J. Oster, J. Graham, J. Rawlins, E. Evans, L. Coleman, S. Darling, M. Darling, M. Bartimus, S. Kong, R. Yum, S. Harders, and A. Chee. 2nd Row: W. Teoh, H. Engle, K. Phillips, C. Lambert, P. Cottone, and J. Hendricks. Dr. Hatlestad is directing.

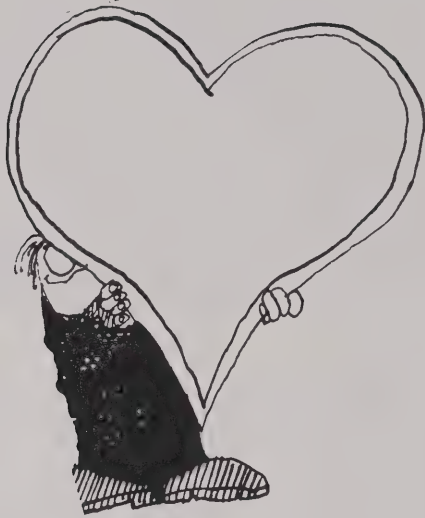

The Blackburn College Community and Carlinville Community Band along with BRAZZ have been entertaining crowds all year long. Under the guidance of Dr. Earl Sherburne the two groups have developed quite a reputation in the area for their excellence. Like choir Band and BRAZZ are classes as students who participate receive academic credit. Anyone who is interested in joining should contact Dr. Sherburne. And a one and a two . . .

HONORS BANQUET

SENIOR BANQUET!!!

The Senior class enjoyed a fantastic party at the Glades compliments of the Alumni Association. Trying to steer away from a formal atmosphere the banquet was totes as a "party." There were cocktails, a steak meal, and a dance following the dinner. Carl Bergauer, president of the Alumni Association, welcomed everyone and encouraged all to have a good time. Everyone had a good time dancing and reminiscing about the past four years. "I thought it was going to be some boring, stuffy affair but it was really a lot of fun and I'm glad I went," said Mary Koehne. The Senior Banquet was a great way to end the year and will be another good memory for the class of 1987.

PIE THROW

To help raise money for the work awards distributed each year at the Honors Banquet, the Work Committee sponsored its annual Pie Throw. Many students turned out to help support Work Committee and have a laugh. Most of the Advisors, Work Committee members, and selected students took a pie in the the face. All in all, over $250.00 was raised!!

TALENT SHOW & BURNIAN COURT

This year's Talent Show, sponsored by the Freshmen Class, was the best in a long time. Many of the acts were of a musical nature although there were several "comical" skits. Emceeding the event was senior Bill Yancey. Judges for the talent show were Jim Rawlins, student; Mrs. Nancy Denman, the President's wife; and Mrs. Joyce Emmons, a Carlinville resident. To add to the festive mood, door prizes were handed out between acts. Most of the door prizes were donated by local merchants and stores. The judges had a hard time selecting the winners but they finally chose: 1st place, Mary Ann Taylor and Ike Turner for their singing duet; 2nd place, Wan Han Teoh, Cindy North, and Chris Zollers for their comic/musical sketch; and 3rd place, Andrew Chee for his renditions of classical guitar music.

After the trophies were awarded the Burnian Court was announced. This year's court consisted of: Mary Koehne and Ed Keane, Susan Kramer and Steve Doria, Lisa Moore and Brian Poust, and Val Small and Bill Yancey. The King and Queen selected by the student body were Susan Kramer and Steve Doria. Congratulations to everyone on this special honor!

MADRIGAL DINNER 1986

Hear ye, hear ye! This year's Madrigal Dinner was a BIG success. The Madrigal Dinner has become a tradition at Blackburn and each Christmas the Madrigal singers entertain the friends and students of Blackburn. The dining hall is transformed into a medieval hall with coat-of-arms, jugglers, and trumpets blowing. This year's Madrigal singers were Mark Darling, Daphne Marrable, Jim Rawlins, Dottie Strode, Jose Castillo, Kendra Hodgson, Mike Bartimus, Chris Zollers, Dan Williams, Dana Shanholtzer, Ike Turner, Harriet Engle, John Oster, K.T. Lambert, and Scott Darling. The Madrigal singers were lead by Dr. Roger Hatlestad. Besides singing traditional madrigal songs, the singers performed many traditional Christmas carols. "This dinner will be one of my favorite memories of B.U.; I had a lot of fun with all my friends," said junior Lorie McChrystal.

ATHLETICS

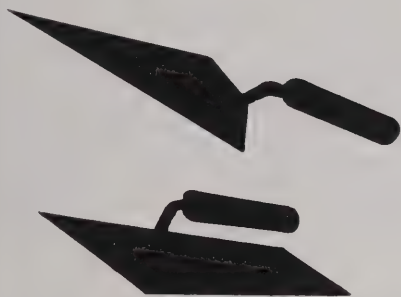

STUDENT CENTER

The Student Center (commonly called the Den) is the social center of the campus and is used by students, staff, and faculty. Den workers serve food and drinks from a snack bar, supervise the game facilities and are responsible for the general upkeep of the area. This year's manager was Kathy Dishon.

CAMPUS MAINTENANCE

This department is responsible for the upkeep, repair and general maintenance of the campus buildings and grounds. Job assignments may include carpentry, utilities work, painting, grounds work, coordination of the maintenance facilities, and other general maintenance work. This year's manager was Troy Hower and the advisor to the department was Mr. Rich Bowman.

Vreeken, A. Kamnick, R. Bolsen, J. Gavin, M. Darling, and P. Heiens.

JANITORIAL SERVICES

One of the bigger departments on campus this year was Janitorial Services. This department is responsible for cleaning the residence halls, including hallways, stairwells, parlors and bathrooms. It is also responsible for cleaning all academic buildings, including classrooms, hallways, and bathrooms. There is a special janitorial crew which is responsible for changing light bulbs, washing windows, and caring for floors and carpets in public areas. This year's manager was Jan Petee and the department's advisor was Randy Ober.

KITCHEN MAINTENANCE

Kitchen Maintenance is one of the more fun departments to work in. This department is responsible for the cleanliness of all dishes, pots/pans, and the dining hall machines. The general cleanliness of the Allison Dining Hall facilities is also a major task of "K.M." They also clean and maintain all of the food service equipment. The "K.M." manager of this year was Daniel Gregor and his department's advisor was Mike Canamare.

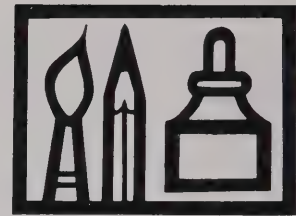

KITCHEN

This department supplies the campus with three meals a day, seven days a week, with the student workers preparing all of the food. Jobs include working in the salad room, bakery or grill areas. Students also work on the serving line, as cashiers, trotters and as salad bar attendants. After meals, everyone works together to clean the kitchen area and prepare for the next meal to be served. There is also a catering crew for banquets and other special events. This year's manager was Debbie Witt and her advisor was Mike Canamare.

WORK OFFICE

The Work Office is the headquarters of the Work Program. This is where all timecards are processed, records kept, and the General Work Managers Office is here. The Work Office usually has three to two secretaries that perform many of the clerical duties of the G.M.s and the dept. managers. The General Managers this year were Diana Damelio and Brian Poust. The advisors to the Work Office and the Work Program were Pete Slavish and Roger Fenton.

BOOKSTORE

L. to R.: Cindy North, Lori Siewert, Maureen Ash, Ed Keane, Val Small, Lisa Scott, John Sparks, and Trina Kirby

This dept. sells textbooks, supplies, stamps, clothing, and general merchandise. Each worker is responsible for a specific area within the store. Workers order, stock, and clean their area. They also work as cashiers and sort mail. This year's manager was Lori Siewert and the advisor was Dr. Koch.

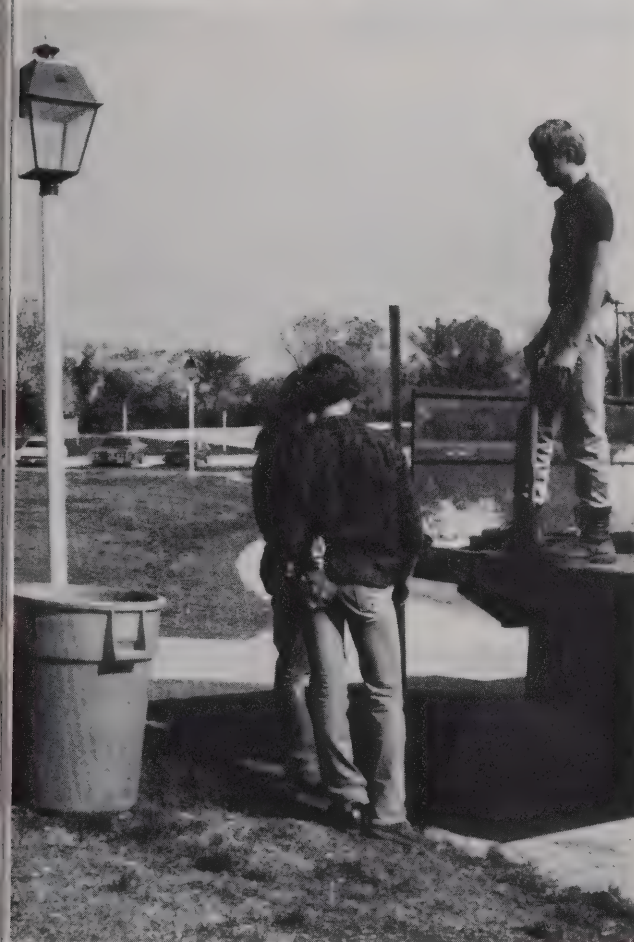

WORK COMMITTEE

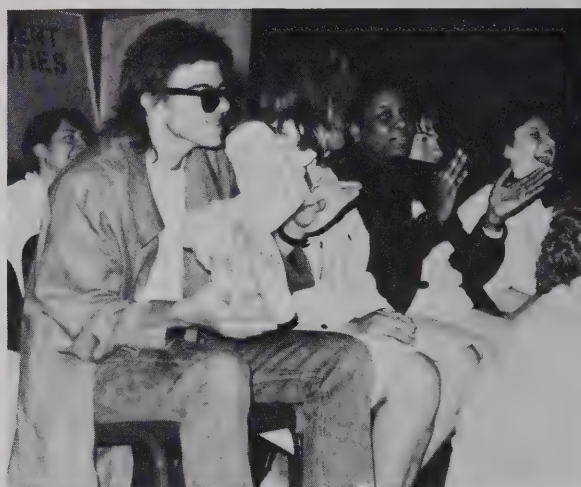

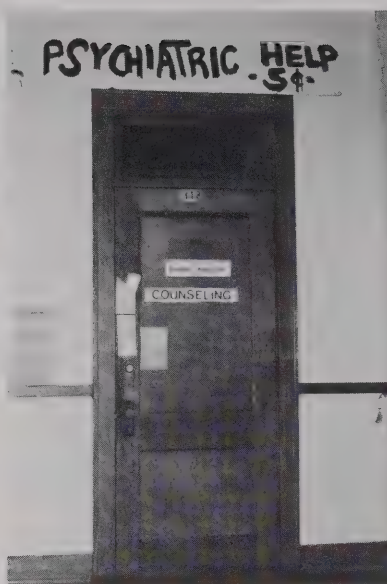

Top to Bottom, L. to R.: Troy Hower, Jan Petee, Debbie Witt, Cleo Whisenton, Kathy Dishon, and Brian Poust. Sitting, Diana Damelio, Daniel Gregor, Karen Fischer, Isabel Millard, and Lorie Siewert.

Work Committee is the eleven member administrative body of the Work Program, which has complete responsibility for work activities. This year's Work Committee has been busy with the running of their departments plus the entire Work Program. They sponsored such events as the Battle of the Departments, a dance, Campus Clean Up Day, and much more. Work Committee members are selected each spring by the old Work Committee. The advisors to the Work Program are Pete Slavish and Roger Fenton. "I feel that being a member of Work Committee has helped me grow in ways I would not have thought possible," said Men's General Work Manager Brian Poust.
